JANET BAUGHER COVINGTON

Janet Baugher Covington has served as Director of Public Affairs at WMAR-TV since 1975. Prior to that, Ms. Covington has held the positions of Director, Assistant Director, Assistant Program Director, and Traffic Assistant as well as Producer of numerous award-winning documentaries and program series including: The National Revue, The Woman's Angle, Homemaker's Roundup, Polluted Paradise, National Amateur Time, The Woman's Journal and Faith to Faith.

Before joining WMAR-TV in February, 1948, Ms. Covington spent two years working at (Advertising Agency) and (County Newspaper).

In addition to her work, Ms. Covington is actively involved in numerous community activities on the local, regional and national levels. Currently, she is President of the Fuel Fund of Central Maryland; National Representative for the National Conference of Christians and Jews; Board Member of the Family and Children's Services of Central Maryland; Member of the Martin Luther King Breakfast Committee and a member of the Executive Committee of the YWCA.

Ms. Covington's past associations include Chairperson of the Woman's Committee, the American Advertising Federation; Chairperson for the Public Relations Committee, the National Association of Mental Health; Board Member, Maryland Chapter of the American Red Cross; Board Member, Baltimore Urban League; Member of the Steering Committee, Baltimore City Fair; Member, United Way Communications Committee; Member, Governor's Drug and Alcohol Task Force; and, Member of the Steering Committee, Pause for the Pledge.

The recipient of numerous awards and commendations, Ms. Covington was one of the nation's first women to hold the position of Producer at a local television station. She has been a tireless advocate for education, racial tolerance and humanitarian causes throughout her distinguished career. As President of the Women's Advertising Club of Baltimore in 1966 and 1967, Ms. Covington's imaginative leadership led to several national awards for the organization. Additionally, she has been the recipient of the American Advertising Federation's Woman of the Year award (1960); Advertising Association of Baltimore's Woman of the Year (1973); Trustee's Alumnae Citation from Western Maryland College (1975); and the Award of Merit from the City of Baltimore, to name but a few.

Born in Catonsville, Ms. Covington is a 1945 graduate of Western Maryland College. She and her husband Bud reside in Baltimore.

RE: Harry Kakel

I am pleased to announce that Harry Kakel has been appointed to the new position of Broadcast Services Director, effective immediately.

Previously Creative Services Director, Harry will now be responsible for supervising all building maintenance and construction, some of which you are already witnessing in the lobby and the ENG Operational Area. Other new responsibilities will include overseeing set construction for studio and remote programming, acting as coordinating producer on special events programs, and producing most of our Orioles Baseball games on the road.

A 22-year veteran of WMAR-TV, Harry has been one of the station's biggest cheerleaders. I hope you will all join me in cheering him on in his new position.

Thank you.
